

The KNM campus ensemble, Neue Musik für Alle e.V. and CoMA - Contemporary Music for All are pleased to announce the decision of our competition "Composing for and by All - Open Score Composition Competition Berlin 2023".

The jury, consisting of composer Dr. Joanna Bailie, guitarist Dr. Seth Josel and composer Prof. Dr. Fabien Lévy, selected the following winning works from the seventeen entries:

1st Prize - Naomi McGillivray : 'Sounds of the Day'

2nd Prize - Julia Janiak: 'Grey'

3rd Prize (shared) - Matthew Gilley: 'Cornelius Cardew's Cleaner' and Werner Bleser: 'Sense of Intensity'

Congratulations to the winners. The works will be added to the "CoMA - Contemporary Music for All" music library and will be premiered in November 2023 at the KNM Campus Days as part of the "Klangwerkstatt Berlin - Festival für Neue Musik". We thank everyone for their participation.

The jury's decision is final. The prizes are donated by Neue Musik für Alle e.V. and CoMA - Contemporary Music for All.
